The music concierge at Aria Hotel Budapest

Budapest, Hungary

An enchanting hotel with a musical concept, Aria Hotel affords guests the opportunity to meet with the property's dedicated music concierge in order to add a harmonious touch to their stay. This music director knows Budapest's music scene well and shares recommendations for guests to discover local and authentic music experiences. He is also responsible for organizing music-themed tours of Budapest, planning music programs around the hotel's piano and creating custom playlists for guests depending on their musical preferences. What's more, you can enjoy coffee, tea and fruit in the hotel's music library. It's a vacation all audiophiles must experience.

The director of aloha at The Surfjack

Honolulu

Immerse yourself in Hawaiian culture with help from the director of aloha, who organizes various on-site programming, including pool parties and luaus. Guests are encouraged to expand their horizons by participating in traditional or nontraditional dream catcher. Plus, you can enjoy coffee, tea and fruit in the hotel's dream catcher library. The director is also responsible for off-site programming such as farm-to-table dining and local architecture for guests.
